Dear Jim,

Thanks for your 10/27 and the enclosures and congrats on the decisions that you enclosed. Really quite good for the Reaganized courts.

I was surprized that the Russ Holmes list included but one of my FOIA suits and nothing ^{on me} else, because I know that going back to 1966 they got and reviewed Whitewash. The clerk at the Saville bookstore ripped a gut in telling me that these two men who he knew from previous purchases were CIA, come in, bought a copy and placed it inside an attache case one of them had handcuffed to a wrist. Same procedure in getting transcripts from Radio and TV Reports. That part of the CIA lived the movies it had seen, the novels it had read.

If I were not so feeble and you so overloaded I'd like to use the PA to expose a bit more about the CIA. I have those records you sent earlier where I can lay my hands on them if I need to Besides which we know it has not disclosed all its records on or about me.

Maybe I'll write such a letter after I catch up on what is accumulating and can become a problem. We were ripped off by the so-called nursing home and I've written it and told it that I want to pay and wipe that out but also want what I did not get removed from the bills, etc.

For those who are not nuts, that is an inhuman way to live. At $8,000 a month, plus extras, for two people. And the extras do accumulate.

That Sarah Hall was rather taken by Hugh McDonald's complete and total fake, Appointment in Dallas, tells us much about Sarah Hall. However, did you and Bud consider that what grabbed her was that McDonald used real names of real people including some of the CIA?

Of course you could ask the CIA for the records on me it did not disclose to me in response to my requests now about 30 years old and some referred to in what you sent earlier. For those things to be put in a memo there had to be sources and not one was disclosed with those records ~~at~~ to me earlier.

Interesting that the more conservative appeals court is handing down these kids of decisions.

Hope you can collect what you are owed!

Thanks and best,

David
